

Brian L. Erstad, Pharm.D., FCCM, FCCP, FASHP, BCPS is currently a tenured Professor and Head of the Department of Pharmacy Practice & Science at the University of Arizona College of Pharmacy. He is also a Center Investigator for the Center for Health Outcomes and Pharmacoeconomics Research and a co-director for the Arizona Clinical and Translational Research Graduate Certificate Program. His clinical responsibilities are performed at University of Arizona Medical Center where he has been the residency program director for more than 20 PGY2 critical care pharmacy residents. Dr. Erstad's research interests pertain to critical care medicine with an emphasis on patient safety and related outcomes' research - he has authored more than 180 peer-reviewed articles, monographs and book chapters. Dr. Erstad has served on the Board of Directors of the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists and on numerous committees and task forces for other organizations including BPS, AHRQ, USP, Society of Critical Care Medicine (SCCM) and the American College of Chest Physicians (ACCP). He is currently a member of the FDA's Drug Safety and Risk Management Advisory Committee and a steering committee member of the United States Critical Illness and Injury Trials (USCIIT) Group. Dr. Erstad was the first pharmacist to receive the Society of Critical Care Medicine's Shubin-Weil Master Clinician/Teacher Excellence Award.